

THE BILDUNGSPAKET

Help with costs for music lessons

The Bildungspaket does not only cover the costs for school lunches, tutoring or excursions, etc., but also for music lessons!

This benefit is intended to support shared experiences with other children and young people. Parents in financial need therefore receive a subsidy of 15 euros/month for the tuition fees.

Who is entitled to cost coverage?

Children from families who receive Arbeitslosengeld II (Hartz IV), Sozialgeld, Sozialhilfe, Kinderzuschlag, Wohngeld or benefits under the Leistungen nach dem Asylbewerberleistungsgesetz.

What is the BILDUNGSPAKET?

The Bildungspaket is designed to enable children and young people from low-income families to participate everywhere. Among other things, children and young people can join sports clubs, music schools or cultural activities and take part in school or day-care centre excursions and trips.

How do I apply for the subsidy?

- » Educational package benefits do not have to be applied for separately (see: Assumption of costs for social and cultural participation).
- » The notification of approval contains a corresponding note.
- » It is sufficient to submit the contract with the music school tomatenklang.

Further information and application forms:

<https://www.berlin.de/sen/bjf/bildungspaket/artikel.108191.php>

